This month, the Revd Bob Wilkinson writes the letter:

Dear Friends,

Have you ever noticed how we tend to ‘categorise’ people - lump them together and label them: “Well, what can you expect? He's a politician!” - but it might just as well be a lawyer, a doctor, a policeman, a teacher, a teenager, a football supporter.

The Pharisees did this: “Look at this Jesus”, they said. “He goes about with collaborators and prostitutes and riff-raff”. (But then, no doubt they in turn had a few things to say about “Pharisees”!)

But God sees us as people, individual persons, each with his or her own special qualities and needs and characteristics, each uniquely valuable, each infinitely worth dying for. Jesus never ‘wrote off’ anyone: even Judas he called ‘friend’- and meant it,

But if it is hard to see others as people, it is even harder to see and accept ourselves as we are. Our ‘self-images’ are not even consistent. Sometimes pride takes us over: “what a fine person I am, so kind and thoughtful and intelligent, so sensible and level-headed and practical”. Another time it is a different story: “What a fool I am! Nobody could be as weak and bad and stupid as I am, (or so hard-done-by and overworked and bad-tempered). I'm a failure! Nobody loves me! And I'm not worth loving anyway!”

But God sees us as we are. He looks not on the outward appearance, but on the heart.

This is, of course, a bit scary - because he sees past all the fine masks we put on, through the whitewashed outside to the not-very-nice inside.

But it is also infinitely heartening. To know that someone knows and accepts and loves you, as you are, is the greatest "tonic" there is. When we know this, gone is the need to show off, to put on a front; gone, too, the feeling hopeless and alone.

To be loved and valued is our greatest human need. It is what we all long for in life, whether we know it or not. And the Good News is that God loves me, and accepts me, even me, as I am, and all the time. Jesus gave his life for us, to bring us home; and the Father's arms ever wait to hug to himself his lost and hungry children everywhere.

One of Jesus’ best-loved stories is about a father and his two sons - one a good-for-nothing tearaway, the other a conscientious lad who worked hard on his father’s farm. Their father loved them both, more than they could even begin to imagine. But each of them had to ‘come home’ to realise just how great was his father’s love.

We can read the whole story in Luke’s Gospel (chapter 15 vv. 11-32).

Bob Wilkinson

Milnthorpe Methodist Church’s Centenary

celebrations continued with another day of thanksgiving. On Sunday May 30th, the Revd Neil Richardson, President of Conference was welcomed as preacher, along with the Revd David Emerson, Chairman of District, who led the Service. Lunch followed the Service. During the afternoon a ‘Sankey Songs of Praise’ was led by John Heron, organists being Joy Bell and Peter Gaskins. Tea was later served to all. On June 27th a United Service for all Churches is to be held at the Methodist Church.

Milnthorpe-with-Heversham MU attended a closing Service of Communion at St. Peter’s Church, conducted by the Ven. Peter Dawson, celebrant, assisted by Dr Dorothy Williams. Bible readings were by Dorothy Williams and Joan Ellam. Twenty four MU members from Benridding, Yorkshire were welcomed, with afternoon tea later served in the Old School. Thanks were expressed by the visiting branch, and an array of biscuits presented towards the new sessional meeting to Gwen Tuer. Pianist was Judy Dyer.

The opening Service of the Mothers Union is September 10th at St. Thomas Church at 2pm.

members stood in silent tribute to the late John Ladell. Sympathy was expressed to Chairman Bill Stables and his wife Val, on the death of their son Chris.

A busy year was reported, with a total of £5,000 donated in grants to village organisations. Public members elected were: Isabel Clark, Keith Dixon, Ronald Wheatman. Officers elected were: Chairman Bill Stables, Secretary Gordon Wilson and Treasurer Neil Dodds.

At the following committee meeting it was announced that Milnthorpe Library now has new tables and chairs purchased with the committee’s donation, following recent archiving of several volumes of village events over the years compiled by the late John Mashiter. A letter from Milnthorpe Corinthians Football Club expressed thanks for a donation received. Letters requesting donations were read from: The Allotment Association, Milnthorpe Steel Band, Milnthorpe Brownie Pack, St. Thomas’s Church (toward wall repair), Heversham Swimming Pool (70% of membership from Milnthorpe). Each received a grant.

Have you, or your family, had any connection with Milnthorpe Methodist Church in the past? Maybe someone was married, or christened there, or attended Sunday School? If so, you may have photos or other memorabilia which you’d be prepared to lend us to display at our Centenary Year Flower and Toy Festival in September, celebrating our past and our hopes for the future. We are also looking for any interesting old-fashioned toys or games etc. Everything entrusted to us will be looked after very carefully. If you can help, please contact us on either 63179 or 62985 or call into our regular coffee morning on Fridays between 9.30 – 12 noon and speak to any church member.

SPOTLIGHT ON SPORT

Dallam Running Club

meets for a training run of about 5 miles every Monday evening. Apart from on the dark winter nights when we are restricted to the roads, we like to get off-road as much as possible and take advantage of the wonderful countryside on our doorstep. The group meets at the car park behind Milnthorpe Police Station at 7.00 pm and runners of all abilities are welcomed. On Wednesdays, runs start from a local hostelry and are followed by a drink and a meal. The venue is posted each week at the club’s website: www.dallamrunningclub.com

A trail race of 5 miles along the canal and footpaths with 500 ft of ascent is being organised for Tues 6th July and will start at 7.00 pm from Carnforth High School. More details from Paul Crewe on 01524 762000.

CROQUET

Peter Wardle's article in last month's Parish News gave us an enticing introduction to the game and a very generous invitation to join players at Levens Hall. We fully support all that he writes and have no wish to deter anyone from accepting his offer. There is, however, a small group of ladies and gentlemen who meet every Wednesday morning at 10 am in the summer (weather permitting) on Milnthorpe playing fields for a friendly(?) game of croquet. So, why not try us as well? All are made welcome, and if you want to find out more either ring Dorothy Hornby on 62403 or Brenda Gregory on 64082 - or just come along some sunny Wednesday.

Arnside Choral Society sincerely thank the 22 local shops and businesses who generously made donations underwriting their Music Festival in May, an event greatly enjoyed by the audience, the talented visiting artists and choir members. Rehearsals recommence on Tuesday 7th September at 7.30 pm in the WI Hall for a Christmas performance of Hiawatha's Wedding Feast. Details - 01524 761309.

Mary Davidson
After five months in Zimbabwe - I’m Back!

from working for a Christian charity Oasis in a town called Mutare, 3km from the Mozambique border. Our time was spent working with street children, with children in the government schools and also for our church out there. We were kept busy! The work with the street children involved going to a support centre in a township where they had morning lessons, then afternoon activities with us and some students from Africa University, ie games and bible study, and the students taught them skills such as card making so that they could sell cards for money to buy school books and uniform. Similarly, in the government schools, we were educating the children about the bible, and also topics such as HIV and AIDS - a huge problem over there. Some of the children we met walked 10 km each day to get to school! Comparing their equivalent of a state school to ours was something of an eye opener...

Not only that but we also worked with youth from our church, which involved leading bible study groups and giving out food to the street kids. We also organised/led a week long holiday bible club - that was a challenge but attracted a lot of children, from both Shona and English cultures.

The best part was the privilege of working with two very different cultures. Zim's a beautiful country with a lot to offer, despite the negative press it receives. We were also able to travel around on holiday after our placement finished. It was an amazing time which we packed a lot into. Thanks so much for everyone's support and encouragement. It's nice to be home! Anna Rutter

‘Right Place – Right Time’

An autobiography is to be published on 8 July by Sir Christopher Audland of Ackenthwaite, with the title ‘Right Place – Right Time’. The author has led an unusual life, participating in many historic events. The book covers his successive careers in the Army, British Diplomatic Service, the British Diplomatic Service, the European Communities, and many unusual post-retirement jobs – including being Pro-Chancellor of Lancaster University. The story is full of anecdote, and fascinating details about leading personalities. A gamut of larger than life characters adorn its pages. The book [ISBN: 1 84101 091 6] is available from The Memoir Club (Tel: 01388 –529060) for £25.00 inc p&p, or may be ordered from bookshops.

The Mission to Seafarers Lent Appeal 2004 raised £175 by money collected in the lent boxes. Many thanks to all who took part.

Westmorland General Hospital

More helpers are needed for the Sunday afternoon Communion Service, asking for 2 hours of your time between 1 – 3 pm on three Sundays in the year. For those who are sick in hospital the Communion Service is part of the healing process. If a person would normally take communion each week then it means a lot to them to be able to do so when they are in hospital. Many of them come to the Chapel for the short service. Those who are unable to do that have communion brought to their bedside. This is for us, an act of loving service to those who are ill. Please join us.

Dorothy & Trevor Williams

This Year’s Christian Aid Collection
