My Dear Friends,

Should British troops be sent north from Basra to fill in behind USA forces, and who makes the decision? As I write the decision is probably being made. For certain the decision will not be taken by the troops. They will either stay near Basra or be sent north. They will have no choice.

Soldiers on enlisting take an oath of obedience to the Queen and accept that from then on they are soldiers 24/7 - there is never a time when they are not soldiers and every order is obeyed regardless of their personal feelings. There is no other way that an army can function. We use the word 'discipline' which means learning by following the leadership and then doing.

Why do I start like that? Simply because it gives a clue to Christian discipleship. At baptism very solemn vows and promises are made to God, we enlist as soldiers of The Kingdom and we receive His commission and authority to be 'His faithful soldiers and servants to our life's end' - no time off, 24/7, for life. But we have gone AWOL (Absent WithOut Leave), forgotten our promises and deserted. It might have been better to have been honest and not to have made them in the first place.

If we have been baptised and do not become disciples receiving the teaching and training necessary to be Christ's faithful soldiers and servants we are showing scant regard for The King, Jesus. No soldier can behave like that and get away with it thinking that one day (at their choosing) they may get round to fulfilling a few of the duties when it suits them, and that all will be well. Yet we imagine that we can 'enlist' in God's family, the Church, ignore the discipleship and expect our heavenly 'pension' at the end.

Advent, which starts on 28th. November, focuses our minds on Jesus' return and says that what He is looking for is faith. That is trust in, reliance on, belief in and commitment to Him. That doesn't come without discipleship. So when, not if (be sure of that), Jesus returns will He find faith in us?

That is faith nurtured by discipleship in fulfilment of our Baptismal promises - or will we miss out because we went AWOL? Advent is a time to think and pray about these eternal issues. Unfortunately it is regarded by many as just a time to prepare for celebrating Jesus' coming at Christmas. It is most certainly about Jesus' coming - His second Coming in Glory!

Stop going AWOL, give yourself up! There is a King's Pardon for repentant disciples.

May the Lord bless you and keep you.

Yours sincerely,

John

Learning Healing Ministry

On Tuesday, 9th. November at 7.30 pm (finishing by 9.30 pm) in the Old school, Heversham and the three Tuesdays following I will be leading sessions to encourage people to become involved in one of the aspects of ministry into which Jesus calls all his disciples. Healing prayer is an integral part of the Church's mission. These sessions are being offered to all the parishes in the proposed Kent Estuary Team with a view to the Healing ministry being a normal part of the life of each parish. come along. God wants our availability not our ability - He supplies what is needed.

Reading and Praying

In St. John's Church, Levens training sessions are being offered to all the Kent Estuary Parishes in 'Reading the Bible in Church' and in 'Leading Intercessions' at these times:

Everyone is welcome whether doing either or both regularly or wanting to be involved.

Special Services and Events at St Thomas', Milnthorpe

The Call of Advent - Then and Now !

Encouraged by the response to the services held on Wednesday evenings in Lent, we are to have four similar services for ADVENT in St Thomas' Church Milnthorpe – starting on Wednesday 24th November at 7.45 pm and each lasting no longer than 50 minutes.

Of all the ways to prepare for Christmas none could be more appropriate than this – and everyone is warmly invited !

Peter Dawson

At Milnthorpe-with-Heversham MU's October meeting, 26 members of our link branch, St Luke's Barrow in Furness, were welcomed.

Local member Dorothy Hornby later gave a fascinating talk 'Childhood on a Westmorland Farm', recounting her happy childhood life, with many incidents, on Scalthwaiterigg Stocks Farm.

At a short business meeting, Mrs Tuer stated that the Christmas Lunch is on Thursday 2nd December at the Flippin' Fluke Sandside. The 2005 MU subscription will be £10.40. The 'gowns of love' made by the members had been praised with thanks by the Revd Jane Tyrer, with some sent to maternity units at Lancaster and Barrow.

A letter from the Methodist Church was read, with thanks for the MU floral display at the recent Centenary Weekend.

On Church Army Sunday we welcomed the Revd David Jeans, Principal of the Church Army Training College in Sheffield. He gave us a talk giving some insight of the Church Army's work, and we hope that we may see more of Church Army Officers – perhaps for a children's week, as we had many years ago.

Our New Organist, Christy Young, gave a musical evening of organ and piano at St Thomas' Church, entitled 'Bach, Beethoven to Boogie', a versatile programme was enjoyed by all present. Thank you Christy ! Proceeds of £120 were equally divided between St Thomas' Church and Derian House Children's Hospice.

Members of the Furness & South Lakeland branch of the Lancashire Association of Change Ringers visited St Thomas' Tower, and rang the bells for 2 hours on a lovely sunny afternoon, emphasising that our 167 year old church is there for everyone.

Family Advent Service

(this is a non-Communion service)

Sunday 28th November 11.00 am at St Thomas' Church, Milnthorpe

Come and celebrate the start of the Christmas Season as we light the first of the Advent candles, sing familiar carols and hymns and listen to readings.

EVERYONE IS INVITED !

'Dull November brings the blast, now the leaves are falling fast!' Yes winter is on its way, but the beauty of the earth is always with us – the bare trees showing their fine bark tracery of twigs, boughs, and branches against the sky. Even small buds show awaiting new life from the roots. Soon, we will have CHRIST –MAS with us, and give thanks for that new life, a baby boy born 2,000 years ago..... Thanks be to God.

A Family Harvest Thanksgiving Service was held at St Thomas' Church, the church being decorated with flowers, fruit and vegetables by volunteers.

At A Special Open PCC Meeting

five other Church members were welcomed. It was announced that Mr Glyn Hopkins was retiring as Organist/Choirmaster. Thanks and appreciation were expressed for his outstanding contribution to church worship. A new organist, Mr Christy Young, was to be welcomed. The important topic of the meeting was the response to the Bishop's Survival to Revival Project, and agreed that work with young people should be the main priority.

Money Raised for Charity

A coffee morning at the Methodist Church raised £147 for Macmillan Cancer Relief; £445 was raised for Milnthorpe and Heversham First Responders and the Blind Children of South Lakeland by Jim Baldwin at one of his race evenings; £105 by a Fun Quiz for Christmas on the Green; Milnthorpe Primary School children raised £56 towards Seeds for Africa at their Harvest Assembly, and a further £120 from their 'Jeans to Genes Day' event for charities supporting sick children. Proceeds from a collection held in the square for Save the Children amounted to £63.62

Grateful thanks to the ladies who organised this and raised a brilliant £82.06, which together with our fundraising made a grand total of £313.27 Andy Rhodes at Spar at Cross Keys at 7.30 - 9.00 pm.

Agenda to be put on boards in village.

News from Milnthorpe Methodist Church

A big thank you to everyone who supported our Flower/Toy/Harvest Festival weekend; the Church/Schoolroom looked beautiful and if you didn't see it you missed a treat !

We have just started a Bible Study on Tuesday evenings at 7.30 pm. All welcome Our centenary celebrations continue on Sunday 5th December at 3 pm, when a concert will be given by the Westmorland Singers. Tea to follow.

Christmas Carol Displays

We are opening our Church over the weekend of Fri 10th and Sat 11th December. There will be Christmas Carol displays (floral etc) for you to see and coffee and mince pies too. Would any individual or group in the community like to help decorate the Church ? If so please call the no. below.

Christmas is coming ...again

Don't you feel that there are seemingly less and less gaps between? However, when we look at ourselves in the mirror, we see evidence of those years passing, whether we like it or not! But our God never changes, and it's good once again to begin to prepare for remembering His Son's inauspicious coming. A traditional lunch will once again be provided by the Christians of Milnthorpe in the Methodist Church hall for any who would like to join with others on that special day. There is no charge – we just want you to help us celebrate between 12.30 pm and 3.30 pm. Please ring me on 015395 62985 if you would like to join us again, or for the first time (we are a friendly lot!), or pass this message on if you know of someone who would like to come – we will provide transport, if required. And if you are someone who could help for a few hours to share the love of Jesus, we would be very grateful.

International Aid Shoe Box Appeal

Milnthorpe Methodist Church are collecting items to fill shoe boxes for the needy. The boxes will be filled on 1st December. Please call in the Friday Coffee Morning for details.

SERVE INDONESIA -

7th July - 15th August 2004

I was blessed to visit Medan in Northern Sumatera this summer and share in the life of some OMF missionaries. It was a real eye-opener to meet folks working in the field and appreciate their joys and sacrifices. I was grateful for the constant prayer support of the church and friends via the miracle of email.

How to sum it up? The highs must include the wonderful students. I was there on a short term programme, Serve Indonesia, to help on an intensive English course (KIBI) at STT ABDI SABDA ('Servant of the Word') college in Medan, founded by 6 local denominations to prepare Christian teachers and church leaders to go out strong in faith, love and knowledge. I stayed amongst the banana plantations in the hot, wet humidity with an old friend who has been in Indonesia with OMF for 32 years and who teaches at the college. Most of the students are Batak and they were thirsty to learn and to deepen their faith. Their ancestors were head hunters, converted to Christianity in the 19th century. Mercifully they left their headhunting knives at home! They are famous for their musical ability. They had the tune of 'We Believe' in minutes though none reads music off the stave! The timbre of their deep voices is the sound of south sea islanders which gave us goosebumps! I also spent a day at volcanic Lake Toba, visiting traditional Simalungan-Batak villages untouched by tourism. There is a display at St. Peter's & information about how you might help OMF Serve Asia short term in the far east. Thelma Mitchell

Christmas Cards for Christian Prisoners of Conscience

Tens of thousands of Christians are in prison because of their faith in Jesus. It is a great encouragement to them to receive Christmas cards from other Christians and thus know that they are not forgotten. Each year a group of us spend an evening writing these cards to prisoners known to Christian Solidarity Worldwide – usually about 50 of them. This year we will be doing this on Monday 22nd November at 7.30 pm at Farnaby Dyke, Levens. Cards will be provided, but if you would like to bring some (small ones please as they go airmail), they would be very acceptable.
